Public Participation No Police report was received. No County Council report was received. No District Council report was received. A National Trust (NT) report was received by e-mail. Visitor properties are open an extra week until November 4th to accommodate the spread of half-term holidays and to help catch up with numbers being down, due in part to the Ferry out of service. Hill Top is down a lot vs 2017, Gallery just about on track, Wray Castle has done better. After November 4th, Wray will be partially open, Claife open daily, Hill Top house closed but the shop open Fri-Sat, Gallery closed but Hawkshead shop open daily up to Christmas. All residential properties are currently occupied with the exception of Belle Grange where prospective tenants are being interviewed. The ITV film crew will be back at Balla Wray mid-November. RESOLVED: Cllr Brodie asked that the date of the next meeting be added to the website as soon as possible after the meeting to enable invitees to attend.	Clerk
219/2018	Ken Fordham – Hawkshead PC, reported on issues common to HPC and CPC. HPC have appointed a lengthsman, Tim Brown, who will initially work 3-4 days/month to get saplings under control. Trying to source some funding from SLDC or CCC. Tim Brown is not VAT-registered, has public liability insurance and all the necessary safety certificates. RESOLVED: Cllrs asked for Tim Brown's contact details with regards to the lengthsman work needed in Claife Parish. Cllr Mallett stated that the precept may need to be increased to cover lengthsman costs for 1 day/month. The road to and from the Ferry must be kept clear.	Cllr Mallett

220/2018	Memorial : The Hawkshead recreation ground, properly known as the Memorial field, was donated to commemorate the end of WW1, and 5 trees were planted, 4 of which remain. To commemorate the 100 year anniversary of WW1, silhouettes will be put around the village to reflect the fallen and there will be a service on the Recreation Ground on Friday 9 th at 10.30am when a replacement tree will be planted. There is an Open Invitation for all parishioners to attend.
